A. Ragging constitutes one or more of any of the following acts:

1. Any conduct by any student or students, whether by words spoken or written or by an act, which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student.

2. Indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student.
3. Asking any student to do any act which such student will not, in the ordinary course, do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student.
4. Any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or a fresher.
5. Exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students.
6. Any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by students.
7. Any act of physical abuse including all variants of it; sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, and stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person.
8. Any act of abuse by spoken words, emails, posts, or public insults, which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfort of a fresher or any other student.
9. Any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or any other student, with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority, or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student.

B. Roles and Responsibilities of the Anti-Ragging Committee:

1. Ensure strict compliance with the UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009, within the Institute.
2. Organize orientation programmes, awareness campaigns, workshops, seminars, pledge ceremonies and counselling sessions to educate students about the ill effects of ragging, their rights and responsibilities, and the legal consequences of engaging in ragging.
3. Exercise continuous vigilance and implement effective preventive measures to ensure that no incident of ragging occurs in any part of the Institute, including classrooms, laboratories, libraries, hostels, common areas, sports facilities, transportation and other campus premises.
4. Foster a culture of mutual respect, discipline, equality and inclusiveness by encouraging positive interaction among students and promoting ethical behaviour throughout the academic community.
5. Examine reports of alleged ragging incidents and recommend appropriate disciplinary action against individuals found guilty, in accordance with UGC Regulations and the rules of the University/Institute.
6. Submission of Anti-Ragging undertakings by students and parents through www.antiragging.in.

7. Encourage students to report incidents of ragging without fear of retaliation and ensure that all complaints are received, examined and addressed promptly, fairly and confidentially.

General Guidelines

1. The Anti-Ragging Committee shall meet at least once every semester. However, additional meetings may be convened during the semester, if required, depending on the exigencies of the work. The notice of the meeting, along with the agenda, shall be circulated well in advance to all members of the Committee.
2. The Anti-Ragging Committee shall submit its report to the Competent Authority for information and necessary action.
3. The institute shall prominently display the Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme and the list of Anti-Ragging Committee members on all designated notice boards.
